

Federal BIRT Competition 2012 Rules and Conditions

RULES AND CONDITIONS. NO PURCHASE NECESSARY. ONE ENTRY PER PERSON.

This is not a lottery. All taxes are the responsibility of the winner. Actuate is not responsible for lost, late, misdirected, damaged, illegible of entries nor is any responsibility assumed for incorrect or inaccurate captures of information due to human, mechanical or electronic error. Award Contest is open to all current Actuate customers or users of Eclipse BIRT, Open Source BIRT and Actuate BIRT. Actuate employees are not eligible.

Actuate reserves the right to disqualify any applicant in its reasonable discretion, including, but not limited to false or inaccurate entries.

Who is Eligible?

All users of Eclipse BIRT, Open Source BIRT and Actuate BIRT are eligible to submit survey answers for the Federal BIRT Competition.

How to Enter

Review the rules and regulations. Complete survey questions within SurveyMonkey, or email your responses to federalgroup@actuate.com by the deadline of Friday, May 11, 2012.

Selection Process

A panel of judges will review all qualifying entries to determine finalists and winners. Actuate may declare multiple winners per category or decline to declare a winner if the judges feel none of the entrants meet the standards for that category.

Prize

First place winner will win a 32 GB Apple iPad with Wi-Fi. Retail price $599.

Notifications

Winners will be notified by May 31, 2012.

Press and Media

Winners may be recognized in a press release if both parties agree.

If you have any questions regarding the awards, please send an email to federalgroup@actuate.com.

Thank you for your interest and best of luck with your entries!